

Connected. Empowered. Transformed.

2016 Annual Report

As we look back on 2016, it was a year marked by exciting accomplishments and deep loss. We grieved the passing of our co-founder, Misty Stenslie, and celebrated together her life and her work as she was honored with a Lifetime Achievement Award from the American Academy of Pediatrics.

FCAA's Impact

4 new state chapters added, now totaling 23 chapters

Hired a part-time contract staff to assist with critical bookkeeping and administration tasks

Total # of hours volunteered by FCAA members: 22,150

Alumni and allies empowered to advocate for many sensitive issues in our community:

- Aging Out
- Homelessness Prevention
- LGBTQ Support
- Sex Trafficking Prevention

Launched an annual collegiate scholarship for Alumni aged 25 and older providing a second chance for education.

Action result research study completed. FCAA leaders now better equipped to more meaningfully engage our national network of members.

Foster Stories, a pilot radio program, aired 20 times on public radio in Maryland. Audio recordings now live on the FCAA website.

Functioned with a fully volunteer national board of directors who collectively performed over 4,000 volunteer hours.

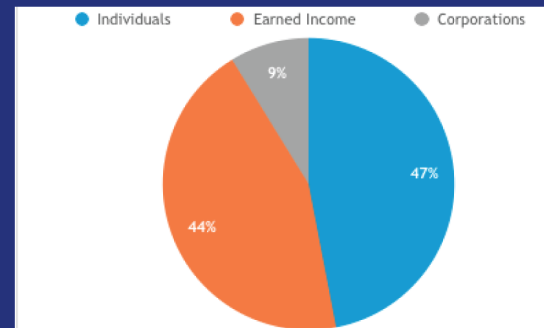

More than 1,000 people were engaged with #FosterWalk events across nine cities raising over $35,000.

FCAA's vision is that all people in and from foster care are connected, empowered and flourishing. Our work in 2016 was made possible thanks to a passionate community of supporters who devoted countless volunteer hours to bring our vision to life, both locally and nationally. Thank you. Without you, FCAA would not be where it is today.

GIVE TODAY to expand FCAA's impact even further in 2017. Our peer support community relies on you to offer opportunities which benefit people in and from foster care. Volunteer your time or provide much needed resources by visiting www.FosterCareAlumni.org.
